5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT SEATTLE

8 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 ISAIAH MARCHE HEGGINS,

12 Defendant.

13 CASE NO. CR23-119

14 ORDER GRANTING LEAVE TO FILE
15 OVERLENGTH BRIEF

16 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Isaiah Heggins's request to 17 file an overlength Motion to Dismiss Indictment under the Second Amendment.
18 Dkt. No. 24. Heggins states the "motion involves complex constitutional arguments
19 and requires discussion of numerous historical sources," requiring an overlength
20 brief for effective assistance of counsel. See id. Heggins filed his Motion to Dismiss
21 on January 30, 2023, the same day as his request to file an overlength brief. Dkt.
22 No. 25. Heggins did not certify a word count in his Motion, but the Court estimates
23 it that it contains approximately 11,368 words. See id. The Government has not filed a response yet. See Dkt.

1 While Heggins has already filed his Motion as overlength, the Court agrees
2 with Heggins that additional pages are necessary for the motion's complex subject
3 matter and thus grants his request. The Government may file an opposition brief up
4 to 11,400 words, but Heggins's reply, if any, may not exceed 4,200 words without
5 leave of Court. See CrR 12(b)(5).

6 Dated this 1st day of February, 2024.

United States District Judge
